Proclamation

WHEREAS, On this 25th Anniversary of the attacks meant to terrorize our Nation, September 11, 2001, nearly three thousand innocent men, women, and children lost their lives; and

WHEREAS, the heroes of 9/11—first responders, service members, and ordinary citizens—demonstrated extraordinary bravery, running into danger to save others; and

WHEREAS, the United States Congress designated September 11 of each year as "Patriot Day" (Public Law 107-89); and

WHEREAS, September 17, is Constitution Day, the anniversary of the signing of the Constitution by our Founding Fathers; and

WHEREAS, our county encourages our community to honor those lost, support survivors, and remember the acts of service that followed that day of September 11, 2001 and come together in their honor stronger and more united today than ever; and

WHEREAS, our county further encourages our community to focus on renewing the American spirit for the entire week for Patriot Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the County Commissioners of Twin Falls County, Idaho do hereby designate September 11 through September 17, 2026, as
